Currently undergoing Full Stack Web Development training at Online Forma Pro, I am looking for an unpaid internship from May 26 to July 24. Passionate about self-learning, I acquired the basics of HTML and CSS before my training and am also developing my skills in illustration. Combining creativity and logic, I do my best to design projects that are both functional and aesthetically pleasing. Curious and motivated, I am ready to take on new challenges and learn within a dynamic team.
